

I choose to live in a reality that is filled with love

I choose to live in an environment that is surrounded by loving people

I surround myself with all that is joyful, happy and loving

My life is full of abundance

My reality is beautiful calm and loving

I am free to be love and speak my truth from my true essence

Love fills my heart with all that resonates in purenness of light

My spark of true existence

Purenness of light

Purenness of love

Freedom
